Dear Parents and Carers,

As you know, today we are supporting Comic Relief with our non-uniform day. If you have not made a donation via our online Just Giving Page, please do so if you are able to by clicking here.

As mentioned in last week's newsletter, we now have an Amazon Wishlist which can be accessed here. . Please use this if you would like to buy a gift to mark your child's birthday.

School Council Cake Sale - Our School Council will be running a cake sale after school today on the playground. Cupcakes are just 30p, and all proceeds will go towards restocking our School Shop with rewards for children who reach their house point milestones. Thank you for your support, and well done to our fantastic School Council!

Just a reminder that next Friday is the last day of this half term. Following the Easter break, children return to school on MONDAY 13th April. As we start to look ahead to next term, the information about our summer term clubs is going out today. In the newsletter next week, we will be sharing with you our summer term dates for key events like our sports day and other events that will take place in the lead up to the end of the academic year, so please look out for this.

Have a good weekend,
Mrs White
